

“Not I, nor anyone else can travel that road for you. You must travel it by yourself. It is not far. It is within reach. Perhaps you have been on it since you were born, and did not know. Perhaps it is everywhere - on water and land.”

Walt Whitman

Storytelling in small groups or personal reflection. One by one, each person shares their answer to the first prompt below. Then go to next question and so forth. A person can pass.

- 1. Tell a story highlighting about the road you are traveling.
- 2. Share about an experience of coming to a life's fork in the road and how you decided which way to go.
- 3. Share a story about when someone tried to influence you to travel on a road that was different than the road you felt that you needed to travel at that time. (how did it work out and what did you learn?)
